

| 1 | Reformulez les phrases en employant la préposition indiquée entre parenthèses.

→ A B

1. We walked for three hours, then we stopped to let the others catch up with us. (after)
2. She always has a cup of hot milk, then she goes to bed. (before)
3. He left the room, but he did not say goodbye. (without)
4. She burst into tears when she read the letter. (on)
5. Do your homework, don't play that stupid game! (instead of)
6. He managed to translate the whole text and he never used a dictionary. (without)
7. She annoyed me because she contradicted him all the time. (by)
8. He was heavily fined because he exceeded the speed limit. (for)
9. He closed the door, then he spoke. (after)
10. You surprised us all because you refused so bluntly. (by)

| 2 | Reformulez les segments soulignés à l'aide d'une proposition en V-ing. → A B

1. He won't approve of the fact that his daughter comes back home so late.
2. She was amazed at the fact that he forgot to call her.
3. Do you mind the fact that I sit here?
4. They worry about the fact that they will never see her again.
5. She is not used to the fact that she has to drive on the left.
6. He resented the fact that she was unjustly accused.
7. He could not bear the fact that he was kept standing at the door.
8. He was furious at the fact that she refused to lend him ten pounds.
9. I regret the fact that you have to leave so early.
10. We were not happy about the fact that we left him alone.

| 3 | Traduisez en anglais. → A B C

1. Cela ne vaut pas la peine de s'inquiéter.
2. Il préfère surfer sur le net que de regarder la télévision.
3. On ne peut pas faire d'omelette sans casser des œufs.
4. Après un certain temps, je me suis habituée à vivre seule.
5. Après avoir perdu du temps à nous disputer, nous nous sommes mis d'accord pour passer nos vacances en Grèce.
6. Je n'aime pas trop (be keen on) nager. Si on faisait une partie de tennis à la place ?
7. Je ne tiens pas (be keen on) à ce qu'il vienne.
8. Elle tient (insist on) à être prévenue.
9. Maintenant qu'il est à la retraite, il s'est mis à (take to) rester au lit jusqu'à midi.
10. Téléphoner en conduisant est dangereux.